Herbal Dispensary Guidelines and Procedures

Information You Need to Know to Follow Compliance

Sunday March 21, 2010

8:00am – 5:00pm

8 CEUs (California Board) and 7 PDAs (NCCAOM)

Location: Chinese Cultural Plaza, 100 N. Beretania St. 203B

There are new FDA regulations regarding good manufacturing procedures. Schools and practitioners must be able to follow dispensary and compounding guidelines and procedures. It is important for you to understand these regulations to follow compliance and to keep your practice growing and thriving through your increased knowledge. The upcoming seminars will present the necessary information and provide you with the following additional benefits:

- Continuing Education Credit / Certificate
- A disc containing all forms you need to be compliant
- A handout to put in your Policies and Procedures notebook
- Information on the Adverse Reaction Database
- Lunch
- Vendor interactions and coupons
- A raffle

Topics to be discussed include: introduction to the FDA ruling, processing and product information, sanitation, equipment and utensils, record keeping, and more! Come learn the ins and outs for your office's dispensary in this one day seminar. This is information you absolutely must know and incorporate. You must be in the loop.
